

Are you a potential leader in the hort industry? And want to upskill? You could be going on this year's HortNZ Leadership Programme.

In these rapidly changing times horticulture needs leaders that have the confidence and skills to take the industry into the future. The HortNZ leadership programme will help prepare you or your employee to successfully capture the opportunities and address the challenges that are out there.

This programme will

- increase your confidence to take the lead and influence into the future
- help you understand better what leadership is all about.
- develop “ready to use” skills, such as communication, teamwork ,critical thinking & problem solving
- offer an awareness of strategy, & how to use it
- provide a wider perspective, understanding & how to address industry issues-now & into the future
- improve self-knowledge and personal planning
- create opportunity to network and develop relationships with other like-minded emerging & influential current leaders

The programme is in three phases:

1. Residential at Lincoln University: Wed 28 Aug - Sun 1 Sept 2019
- 2 Non Residential: Sept to Oct 2019
- 3 Residential in Wellington: Tues 29 Oct to Thurs 13 Oct 2019
